Langston receives dedication honor.

With a sweet smile, a sincere willingness to lend a helping hand, a genuine concern for our welfare, and an humble “yes ma’am,” Mrs. Evelyn Langston has won our respect and friendship. As secretary of DHS, she is active in all phases of school life:

CURRICULUM

The search for improving oneself can only be found by enriching the mind with the wisdom of other men.

The administration keeps our school running

Mr. A.B. Johnson, District Principal

smoothly.

Miss Ophelia Matthews,
Principal and Guidance Counselor

Mrs. Evelyn Langston, Office Secretary

Overseeing the administration of the city's schools is the duty of Superintendent A.B. Johnson. His responsibilities include personnel hiring, curriculum planning, and a multitude of other tasks. Making important decisions and attending many meetings are part of his daily routine.

In the capacity of Guidance Counselor, Miss Ophelia Matthews has gained the trust and respect of the students. She is always willing to give her expert advice concerning choices of colleges, courses, or careers.

Mrs. Evelyn Langston provides valuable assistance in the Superintendent's office. Keeping records, preparing invoices, and serving as a receptionist are a few of her many responsibilities.

A study of English is necessary for success.

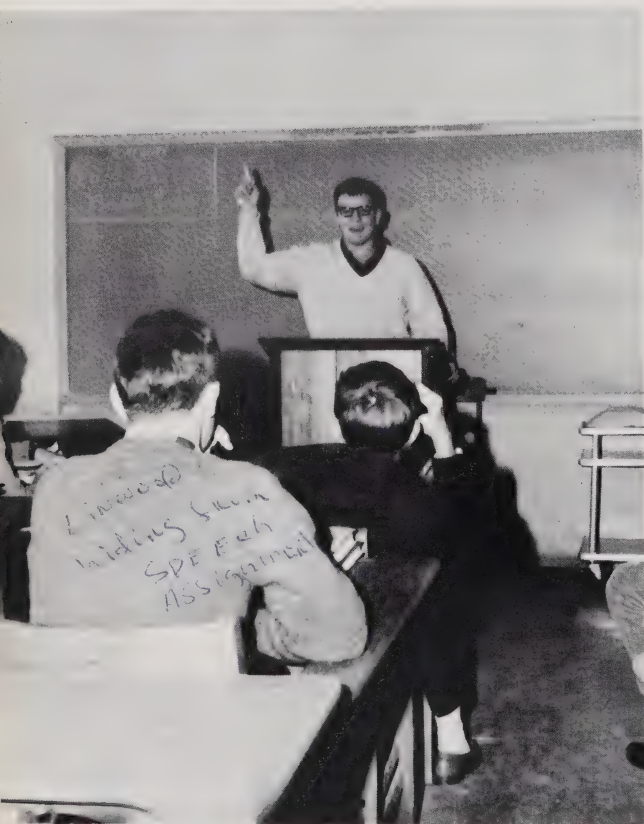

Mr. Larry Craven

Mr. Robert Farnell

Literary analysis and clear composition constitute the two major parts of English. Literary analysis delves into a work searching for deeper understanding of the story and the symbolism. Clear composition enables the student to communicate his ideas effectively to others.

Our English Department offers courses of study in grammar rules, vocabulary improvement, and literature. Implanting in the student a general knowledge of literary works, English courses require projects and outside research which create interest.

"Ask not what your country can do for you . . ."

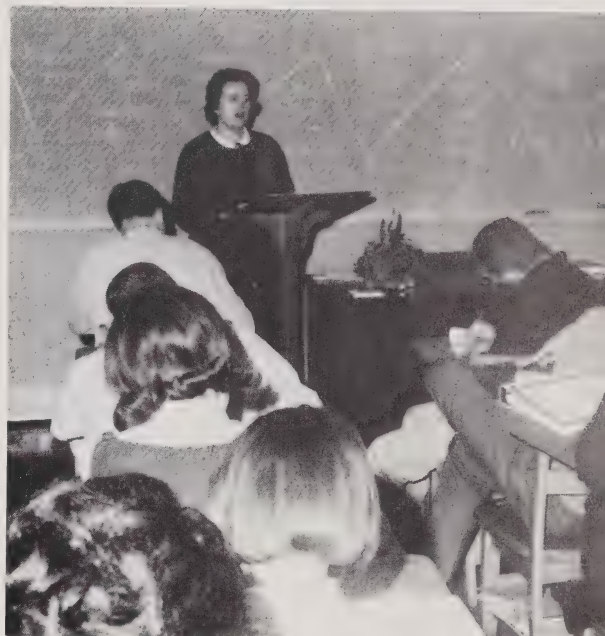

After a good-morning joke, Mr. Farnell begins his English lesson.

"The manuscript line should extend from the left margin to the right."

English III students benefit by taking notes in class.

Mrs. Irene G. Dixon

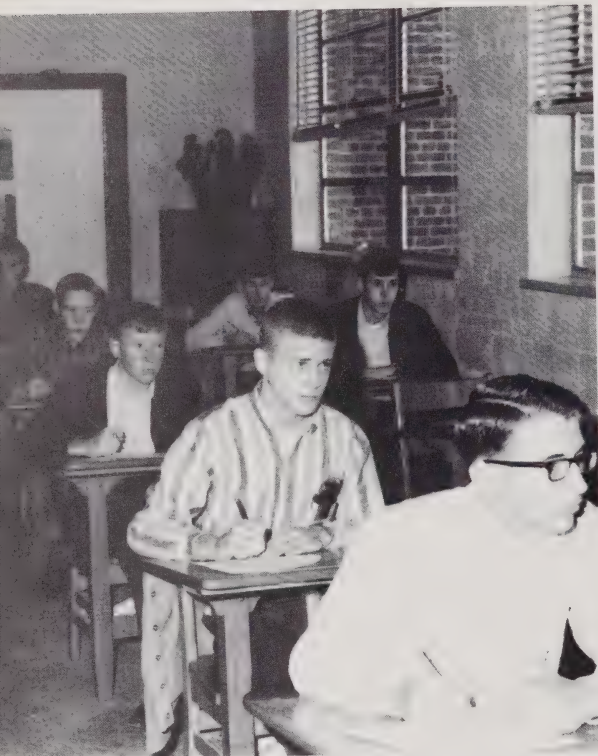

Mrs. Polly Payton

Mrs. Opal Weeks

Linguists promote world understanding.

Latin I students prepare to take a vocabulary test.

Mrs. Lucille Lockhart

Our Foreign Language Department offers an opportunity not only to learn the grammar of a language other than English, but also to study the life, customs, and literature of other people. Important primarily for its intriguing literature and colorful culture, Latin is offered and places its primary emphasis on the study of grammar and Caesar's Commentaries on the Gallic Wars.

French scholars receive a firm grounding in basic vocabulary and grammatical usage. They enjoy reading a complete book of French short stories in the second year of the course. Attractive bulletin boards and special projects create interest and make the classroom attractive while lending a Parisian atmosphere.

Mrs. Lockhart explains the use of passe compose.

The Bible is the guidebook to good living.

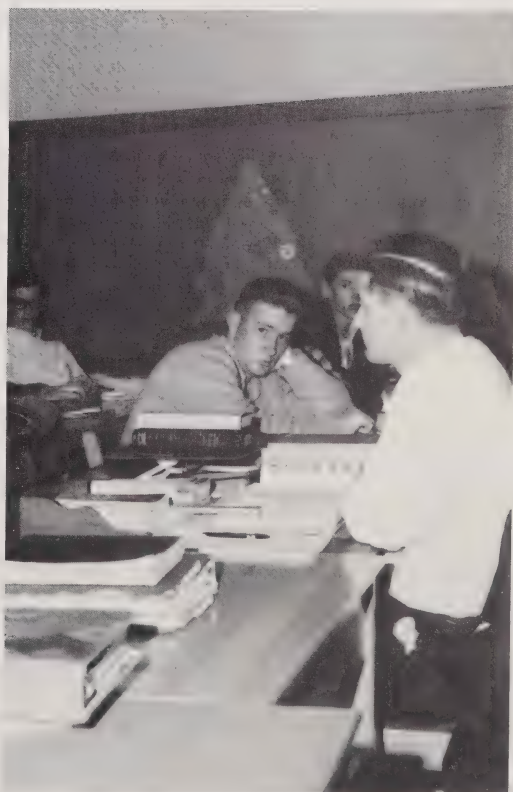

Mr. Marvin McGraw

In an effort to create higher moral standards, our school offers Bible. Beginning with the creation, the students make an intensive study of the Bible by translating its language into a more understandable form. Biblical maps and all the books are studied, and many scriptures are learned.

Mr. McGraw leads a discussion on the Bible's relevance in the world today.

Dunn produces candidates for tomorrow's business world.

Miss Sharon Purcell

"My typewriter makes mistakes!"

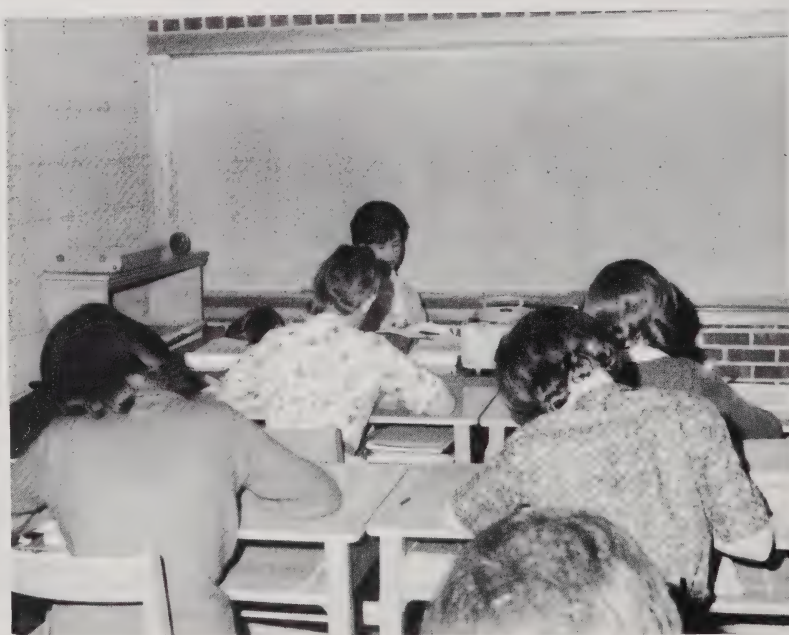

Miss Janice Guyton

Mrs. Hilda Wilson

Dunn High is fortunate to have such a comprehensive Commercial Department. Upon graduation from high school, a student who has taken advantage of these courses is prepared to enter the business world without hesitation.

Typing and shorthand form the basis of the department. Students taking bookkeeping are faced with problems similar to those occurring in an office. General business students devote their time to learning the basics of credit and finance.

"Future secretaries will need to know this ..."

Surveying the past prepares us for the future.

John Parker points out Viet Nam to his U.S. History class.

To instill an understanding of today's problems and tomorrow's changes, the Social Studies Department attempts to interpret the past and its relationship to the present and future. Students can fulfill their social responsibility only after comprehending the basic social, economic, and political systems of today. In an effort to help the students attain the essential concepts in these areas and relate these concepts to the contemporary situation, many classes conduct special projects.

Mr. Gene Driver

Mr. Glenn Varney

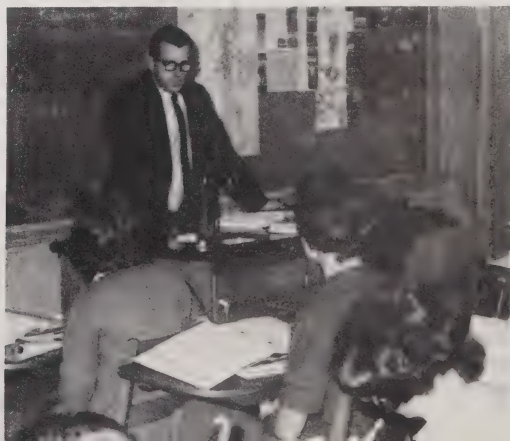

Mr. Jerry Smith

The intellectuals read current events from famous magazines.

Belinda

"If everyone will please wake up, we will try this again."

Vocational arts is necessary in every-day life.

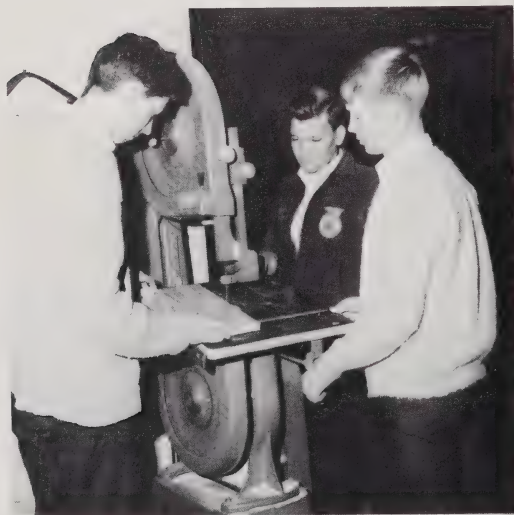

Sewing is a useful skill for any homemaker.

In order to give students experience in different facets of home life, the Vocational Department offers Home Economics and Vocational Agriculture. In Home Economics, Mrs. Stroud guides girls in cooking, sewing, decorating, and various other domestic duties. Each girl is assigned projects which are graded upon their completion.

Mr. Osborne, a new addition to our faculty, teaches carpentry, improved methods of farming, and facts about livestock in his Agriculture classes.

"Read your directions carefully and then begin."

Boys learn various ways to improve their skill in wood-working.

Mrs. Pearl Stroud

Mr. Woodworth Osborne

Fitness is fun.

One, two, one, two, one ...

The Physical Education Department offers a health course to all freshmen. Classes in athletic activity are included in this health course. Students learn the importance of team effort and good sportsmanship. Participation in the Physical Fitness Program gives students an opportunity to increase their ability while having a good time.

"This is the way to get an hourglass figure!"

Mr. Whit Bradham

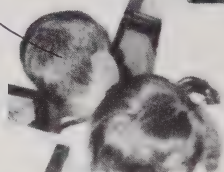

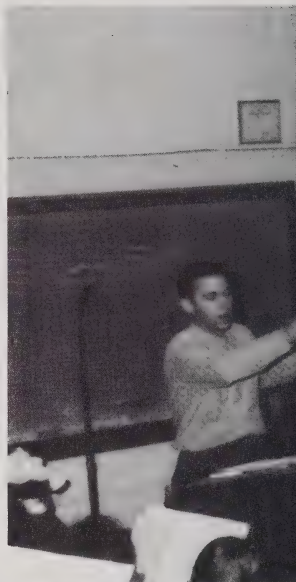

Miss Kathyne Martus

Music is the speech of angels.

Mr. Ernest Black

Directed by Mr. Ernest Black, the Dunn High School Band performs at all the football games with precision drill and outstanding half-time music. Many hours of practice go into the concerts given during the year. The Chorus is also directed by Mr. Black and performs at graduation exercises and at concerts.

"After we finish this, we get to march in the rain!"

Mr. Black records a practice session before the Christmas concert.

Practice makes perfect.

Student scientists discover new worlds.

Mr. Dewey Bass

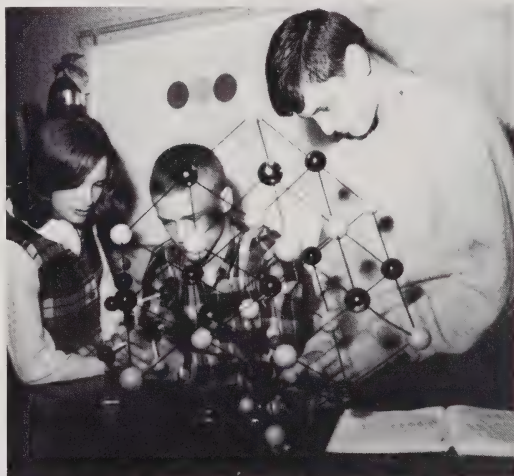

Mr. Harvey Eldridge

Freshmen, having received a basic knowledge of the general principles involved in the study of the physical world, are prepared for the more specialized field of biology, chemistry, and physics. The study of living organisms brings the biology student into contact with life at its simplest, the amoeba, and at its most complex, man himself. At junior level the student is taught to understand chemical elements, formulas, and reactions. Having received the basic concepts of chemistry, the student is prepared to conclude his high school science courses with the study of physics during his senior year.

Bobby Weber is fascinated by the amoeba.

"If I only had my tinker toys ..."

Mrs. Ann Cannady

Math courses develop logical patterns of thought.

Courses offered by the Mathematics Department teach the students the intricacies of mathematics which are necessary for advanced work in this area. Basic laws and procedures of mathematics are taught in such courses as general math and first year algebra. Students may then broaden their understanding by enrolling in higher courses. College-bound students should take the second year of algebra, advanced math, and geometry.

Mrs. Mary Pridgen

"Tomorrow we will learn to operate the slide rule."

Mr. J.E. Johnson

Mr. Clarence Cannady

Mrs. Pridgen discusses Harry Lever's icosahedron in Math IV.

Experience is the best teacher in D.E.

The main purpose of this course is to encourage high standards in business and in industry. After morning periods of classroom instruction, members go to their jobs in the community where they are faced with much pressure and responsibility. They gain much experience in business and in human relationships.

Mrs. Dorothy Snipes

Mrs. Snipes gives pointers on making the correct change.

Sylvia Johnson, the most outstanding D.E. student, can often be found behind the cash register at Raylass's.

Books open the door to new, different worlds.

The library is a bank of knowledge in which students may invest much time and, in return, withdraw a vast profit at a high rate of interest. As the members of the student body proceed through high school years, the majority of them realize the entertainment and the wealth of information to be gained by using library facilities.

Mrs. Patricia Myers

"Be sure to get the book back on time!"

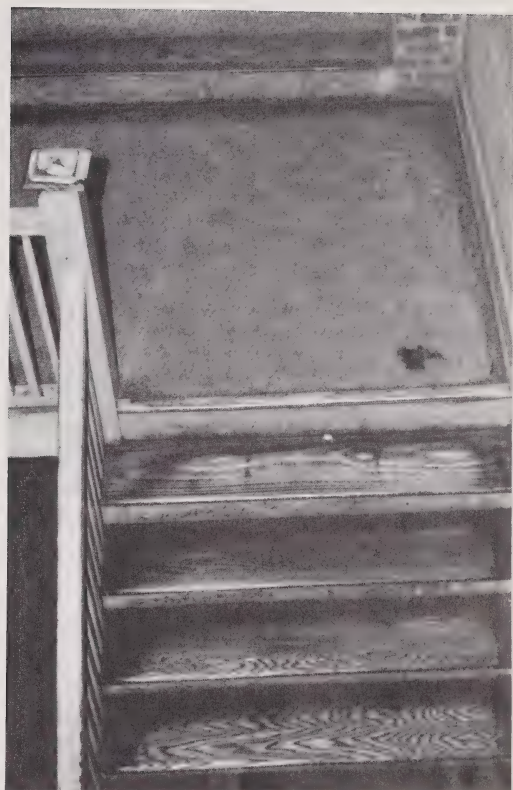

Reference books are here today and gone tomorrow.

Mutual bonds of trust and deep respect for each other unite people into a cooperative working unit.

“Moon River” becomes a wonderful

The dream begins with the courtyard of a southern plantation.

The ivy arches lead to the dance floor.

The living room of the plantation was a place to relax while enjoying the dream.

The day got off to a grand start with the sun shining brightly. At noon, juniors were excused from classes and then the work began. Dyeing sheets black, picking roses, climbing trees for ivy, sweeping floors, building a well, constructing a riverboat, putting the sky up, decorating a living room, covering the arches, and many other innumerable tasks were part of the afternoon. Time raced on and it looked as if things would never be ready. Then, all at once, everyone looked around and the gym had become a beautiful dream-world.

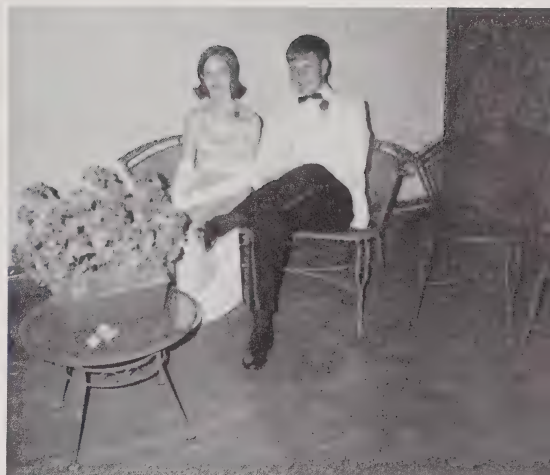

“Moon River” turned out to be a memorable theme. Tired, but proud juniors and surprised, happy seniors danced beneath the stars and made secret wishes at the well. The dream ended all too soon for everyone, but this dream lingers on in the hearts of all who were a part of it. “Moon River” was indeed a dreammaker that lovely night!

dream-come-true at '65 Jr. - Sr.

Before the end of the night, many wishes are cast from the steps of the well.

Joy and Nathan catch their breath while the dream lingers on.

The rustic well gains its magical appearance.

The Fabulous Continentals rock from the deck of the riverboat.

Enthusiastic mass pep rally, victory at the game, and crowning of Queen Linda are the essence of Homecoming.

Dunn's "football" team prepares for the Homecoming game.

"David, please get that microphone working!" pleaded Rebekah Pope, Chief Cheerleader, in an exasperated state of anxiety. Replacing the traditional Homecoming parade, the mass pep rally, held at the corner of Butler and Carroll, progressed at an unusually slow rate because of the malfunction of the loud speaker. Nevertheless, despite the unfortunate and unpredictable, the pep rally proved highly successful (under the leadership of the Varsity Cheerleaders and with the co-operation of D.H.S. students).

The enthusiasm and pep of our school proved advantageous, for Friday night our football team demolished their seventh opponent in succession. The Lumberton Pirates were no match for the powerful Greenwaves, who came through with a victory of 14-0.

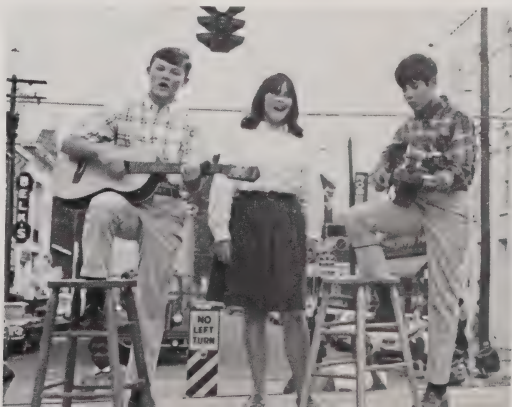

Half-time became the most suspenseful part of Homecoming for the court of fourteen Varsity Sweethearts. The crowning of the beautiful Linda Jackson by John Thornton was enjoyable for everyone.

With music for the dance provided by the "Mighty Cavaliers," Homecoming '65 came to a climax and close at the Wayne Avenue School.

The natives are restless!

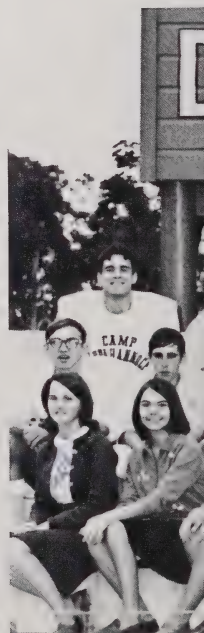

Individual talent makes the rally successful.

Marshals possess high scholastic averages.

Marshals for the 1965 graduating class were selected on the basis of the highest scholastic average up to the end of the junior year. They escort the graduating seniors into and out of the auditorium at the exercises and ceremonies at the end of the year. Being a marshal is a high honor and one that merits recognition.

Honor Section pays tribute to worthy seniors.

An outstanding senior is one who excels in many phases of school participation, including both curricular and extra-curricular activities. Such a student maintains better-than-average grades, is active in club leadership, exhibits good sportsmanship, and possesses that inexplicable quality—school spirit. To recognize such prominent seniors is the purpose of a special meeting of the Dunn High School faculty who select the worthy students.

1965 SOUTHEASTERN

3 - A CHAMPIONS

It would take too long to tell the whole story, and besides, most everyone knows it by now. Therefore, we'll just give you the general picture.

Dunn's 1965 football team was picked to win only two games. This team, led by Coach Whitney Bradham, had the thing to make up for what they might have lacked in experience or size. They had a unity which no team has ever matched. Their motto was not the famous "every man for himself" but rather "every man for the team"; consequently, the 1965 Greenwave Squad went into their first game with a positive attitude. The result was a 27-0 win over Laurinburg. The second game was with State Champion Favorites—Rockingham. Dunn was determined to win and with an all out effort and a whispered prayer, they won 12-7. This paved the way toward a 10-0 season in regular play.

Each week, the Greenwaves moved up a notch or two but they were never given credit for being the number one team they really were. Nobody gave up, though, and with an outstanding display of sportsmanship, unity, devotion to cause, and "plain ole guts", the Dunn boys reached their goal—Southeastern Conference Champs.

The first state playoff game was with Tarboro, and though Tarboro won 7-0, Dunn led in all statistics. It seemed that fate ruled the Greenwaves out. It was hard to take defeat and with 30 seconds to go and the Dunn crowd shouting, "We're from Dunn, couldn't be prouder," quite a few football players shed their last football tears. The Greenwaves didn't feel defeated long for they knew they had won like champs and they could lose like champs. The season ended 10-1 with the 1965 Greenwave football team presenting to our school the Southeastern AAA Conference Football Championship.

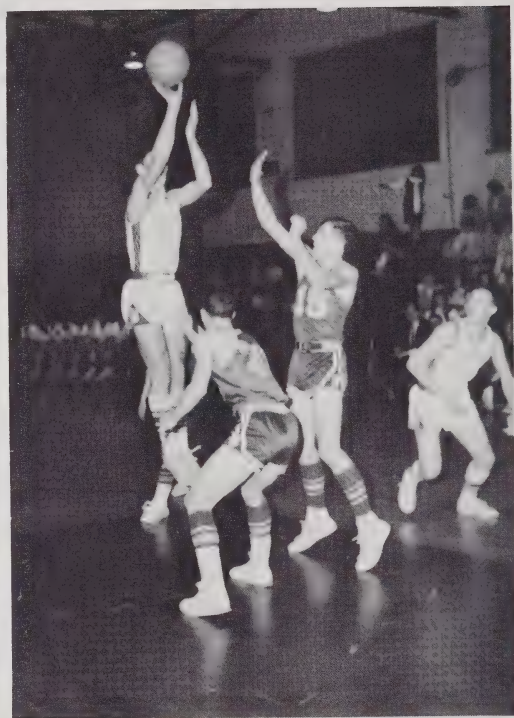

Greenwave's show determination

A considerably improved Dunn cage squad made Coach Bobby Tart's second season here a success as it won 11 games and lost only 8. A well-balanced offense averaged over 60 points a game while an aggressive and harrassing defense held the opponents to a considerably smaller number. A strong "bench" was available to relieve the "starters" any time it was necessary. The experience gained by the younger boys makes Dunn's basketball picture for the future look very promising.

Our girls' basketball team, which seems to gain in skill and ability each year, attained the height of greatness this year as they coasted through the first twelve games of the season without a loss. "Number 13" proved to be indeed unlucky as the girls lost a heartbreaker to Pine Forest. This defeat ended a 22-game winning streak for the Wavettes which extended into the latter part of last season. Our girls are to be commended for their fine exhibition of good sportsmanship and excellent basketball, and we hope that the winning spirit that they helped to instill in the hearts of the students of DHS will continue for many years to come.

*I believe

Proved veterans and strong rookies hint
of success.

After a disappointing finish last year, the baseball team has very high expectations for this season. With several "stars" returning, along with the other lettermen and a couple of hopeful prospects up from the J.V., the Greenwaves should be a strong contender for the conference crown.

Fatiguing workouts pay off in decisive victories.

Daily workouts often cause a boy to give up in track. No one pushes a track participant but the participant himself. The individual does no more than he himself desires to do. No joy, however, exceeds that experienced by a boy who has just taken first place for his school in a "track and field" event.

“For dear old Dunn High School, we yell.”

To encourage spirit, spirit everywhere—was the chief ambition of the Varsity Cheerleaders. They conjured excitement among students in every phase of school life. The girls began practicing cheers diligently in the summer to prepare for the coming games. When school started, morale was kept high by means of pep rallies, posters, victory ribbons, socials for the teams, Greenwave buttons, and suppers for the visiting cheerleaders.

The Varsity Cheerleaders deemed themselves privileged to be a part of athletics at Dunn High School.

The Student Council is a forum for student expressions. This club works to co-ordinate school functions by promoting better student-faculty relationship, instilling proper attitude, providing projects for student participation, and encouraging school spirit.

It sponsors such projects as the selling of football programs, the furnishing of orange juice for basketball players, the providing of monitors for basketball games, and the planning of assemblies.

Whether it is a human fault or not, the fact remains that man has always needed a goal toward which to strive. Dunn High students, returning from a relaxing three-month vacation, found the needed challenge presented to them in the form of the National Beta Club.

Requiring the maintenance of a 90 average in addition to the cultivation of the qualities of leadership, service, and character, the club was open to Junior and Senior students. The annual fall induction ceremony, at which the new members are tapped, more than doubled the number of members remaining from last year.

The Beta Club usually attends the annual convention in either Raleigh or Asheville.

New experiences are encountered
by service.

"To create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community high standards of Christian character" is the motto of the Sr. Tri-Hi Y. One of the most active clubs in Dunn High School, the Sr. Tri-Hi Y encourages its junior and senior members to refrain from the use of alcohol, tobacco, and profanity. Functioning as a service club, the Sr. Tri-Hi Y continued its project of paying for school lunches for a needy child in the grammar grades. At Christmas, the club further rendered its services by collecting and distributing clothes and toys to less fortunate families in Dunn.

Each member was responsible for a morning devotional at school during the months of December and January. The club members also attended services at various churches throughout the year. Active and worthwhile, the Senior Tri-Hi Y remains outstanding in its accomplishments.

Jr. Tri-Hi-Y molds strong character.

The Jr. Tri-Hi Y consists of freshmen and sophomore girls. Members of this club are always ready to volunteer their services both for the school and community programs. One of their altruistic programs consisted of the making and distribution of hospital tray favors. "To create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community Christian standards" is the motto of the Jr. Tri-Hi Y. Affiliated with the YMCA's of America, the Jr. Tri-Hi Y is another of Dunn High School's service clubs.

Dunn Hi Times keeps students informed.

The slogan: "The New Dunn Hi Times" has something for everyone. This slogan began the 1965 subscription campaign of the school newspaper. Although the campaign fell short of its goal, staff members succeeded in publishing six full issues covering the main events of the school year.

Attending the North Carolina Scholastic Press Institute at the University of North Carolina gave members the opportunity to exchange ideas with other schools and to receive constructive criticism.

The new overall format and feature and editorial columns brought the praise of members of the faculty and the student body for the "new" Dunn Hi Times.

One of the most active clubs at Dunn High School is the Future Business Leaders of America, an organization open to business students. The purpose of this club is to promote a better understanding of the business world and to prepare better the business student for the business world ahead of him. Projects undertaken by the club this year included sponsoring a Sock Hop, preparing a skit for the Homecoming Rally, typing and filing for teachers, and making candy for old people during the Christmas season. With their full schedule of projects, they wanted to be eligible for the Gold Seal Chapter Award.

Lavon Hartley and Stuart Ennis participate in a skit to get new members to join the F.B.L.A.

Future Homemakers work on home projects.

"Marriage Calls for Preparation" and "Stay in School" are the national goals of the Future Homemakers of America this year. The local chapter keeps busy by holding panel discussions and inviting guest speakers to discuss these topics.

Any girl that has ever taken Home Economics is eligible to join the club. All girls work on homemaking projects and toward achieving Junior, Chapter, or State degrees.

The "F.F.A." is a national organization of, by, and for boys who wish to study vocational agriculture in secondary schools under the National Vocational Arts of Education.

It is founded upon leadership, sportsmanship, co-operation, service, thrift, scholarship, improved agriculture, organized recreation, citizenship, and patriotism.

The DECA is an organization of students enrolled in vocational distributive education classes. It furthers the welfare of its members in the following ways:

1. To stimulate professional growth of students.
2. To develop professional growth of leadership through vocational opportunities in marketing and distribution.
3. To develop skills in human relationships and to encourage high ethical standards in business and industry.
4. To foster a deep feeling of civic, moral, and social responsibilities.

The Library Club gives students a chance to further their reading intellect. Each week the different members put up a colorful bulletin board pertaining to their club activities. Mrs. Patricia Myers instructs the students on checking out books, charging fines for overdue books, and other library duties. Their service keeps our library running smoothly and efficiently.

F.C.A. and Boosters' Club create interest in athletics.

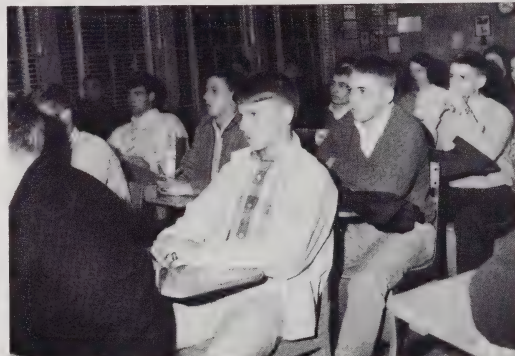

Who wouldn't want Bobby Richardson's autograph!

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes is a national movement whose primary purpose is to confront athletes, coaches, and other teenagers with the challenge and adventure of following Christ in the fellowship of the church.

The F.C.A. is a non-profit interdenominational group who is extremely concerned over the lack of religious training among more than sixty per cent of American youths, and increase of crime among these youths.

An F.C.A. group was started this year in Dunn and has been a big success. There are over thirty-five persons meeting twice a month. They have sponsored two assembly programs with guest speakers, Bobby Richardson and Al Long.

Whether it is the "Dunn High Victory March" or "Das Pensionat" they are playing, the band always performs in a manner that is a credit to Dunn High School. Under the direction of Mr.
Ernest Black, they participate in half-time ceremonies, parades, and civic functions. Every year the concert band works diligently to achieve a standard of excellence so that they may enter the state contest.

ADVERTISEMENTS

The students of Dunn High School have a great deal of appreciation for the businessmen of this area. Through their eminent support in many phases of school life, a better relationship has been established between the town and school.

Mrs. C. A. Jackson, Jr., Rep.

Route 5

Dunn, N. C.

With sincerest gratitude, we thank the co-operative and enthusiastic businessmen and women who have shown their support by advertising in our yearbook. Without their interest in us, the 1966 ECHO would have never become a reality.

A special thank-you goes to Mr. J.B. Edwards and Mr. Ed Goldston of Hunter Publishing Company for all the "extra attention" and the many hours of their time.

As sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cannady and Mr. Harvey Eldridge deserve medals for bravery. They stood by us when the going got rough and were always ready with a good word—even when we were late on our deadlines!

Last, but not least, we thank you for making 1966 Dunn High School's best year.

1966 ECHO STAFF

Personnel render invaluable service.

Cafeteria: Mrs. Irene Godwin, Mrs. Elizabeth Jackson, Dietitian; Mrs. Vennie Tripp, Mrs. Ruby Best, Mrs. Carolyn Hairr.

history of school year.

LaRue Draughon, Junior Editor

Selling ads in August, "flipping" over J.B., discussing navy and "whiskey," getting color slides mailed four weeks late, posing in towels, waiting for Sean(?), trudging to the Post Office in the snow, planning Talent Night, and listening to everyone's opinions have been the ingredients of the 1966 Echo. Our school year is gone now and we have all the tears, disagreement, fun, discussions, and experiences stored away in our memories. The 1966 Echo has been a shared headache and now it is a shared joy. The staff takes pride in presenting it to you.

Little Henry

This day has great years for me. I enjoyed playing trumpet with you. I was thinking only of how my played trumpet with. I have tried to think you were there. I know I know that I have forgotten more than you can possibly learn. But it is a challenge that about endeavor to visit when it suit you
I could not at an auspicious occasion

Little Henry, I know you have laughed at the great quantity of I. Chavira. I have tried to think you. I know you considered a few of them. I. Chavira. I. Chavira. I. Chavira.
Very important to your life.

My darling Henry, I have really enjoyed this year and will never forget you. You are my dear friend. I hope I will always be your friend.

Yours truly,
Walter R. R. R.

Remembered to tell you. I hope I will always be your friend.

Harry,

I have one more thing for you this year. I have a new book of plays and a fine poem. I would like to send you one which would be a fine poem. Good bye to a great year!

A friend always,

Harry

Harry

I have very much enjoyed your letter. I have a lot of things to do and I have with me a book of plays and a fine poem. I would like to send you one which would be a fine poem. Good bye to a great year!

Henry,

I really don't know what to say cause I'm not much at words when it comes to this. All I can say is since I have become to know you this year (HERE THAT IS COURT & C. ISH) you are one of the best friends I could have ask for.
Take care of the Band next year and raise all the — you can on the Band trip so everyone will think me & Buster are along Give me some space so I can finish after the Jr. Jr.

a friend always
W. H. Burges

Henry,

Would you believe I've run out of words? Well I've got a few for you,
your big smile has really helped when I was down in the dumps.

Good luck & the best of everything to a great ole guy.

Just,
Bettie

Henry,

This year was great! Band was the greatest! You were pretty good too! Getting to know was fun. You are a great trumpet player.
Keep the good work up.
God Bless you always!
Here's wishing the best to the best! Remain

As Always
Belinda

Henry,

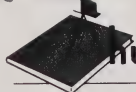

Love you! But...
I'm sure you had a good time in Washington. I only wish I could have only been there to look in eye on you. Sorry I missed you party. I missed because... I didn't stay at the hospital. Henry, your a great guy and I I malwinger. Henry, your a great guy and I can't begin to tell you how much I love enjoyed your being next to me in science. You have really brightened the whole year. Best wishes,
Betty Jean

So

Henry,

This has been one
fast year hasn't it.
I'm sure had a great time this year, and you have been a large part of it. In both Algebra and P.E.
I have enjoyed being with you this year and hope to see you many future years. Good luck and may "Allah be with you."

Henry,

This great year is almost over and I will never forget it. I enjoyed you being in my science class and Band. I'll never forget the many times you told me to slide down in my seat in science. The trip to Washington was a blast, although you didn't get to look after me much for dear ol'
"Robert." I hope I can have more classes with you next year. Good luck.

Henry,
I've really enjoyed
knowing you this year.
We're ~~not~~ had a lot of great times this year, especially at Washington.
(We really gave you a hard time). You're a great guy and a wonderful friend. Good luck with your basketball career!

Henry,

Looks like the year is about over and we will have to empty that old locker pretty soon. I'm glad we share a locker and looked after each other's books as good as we did. You have been one of my closest friends this year and I hope this friendship will continue.

your friend,

Johnny

Henry,

Well this year has been a great year and I have enjoyed knowing you. Hope to see you next year at the beginning of football.

Mike Whitton

Henry,

It's been great being in your Algebra + Science classes this year. Well we did have fun in Science anyway.

I can't wait till football season if I go out. Stay like you are, a great guy, and you will always have plenty of friends.

Best of luck in the future.

Henry
Dae Matthews

This has been a pretty good year with you.
Henry, I enjoyed having you on our basketball team. I look forward to us being up there next year. I hope you have a good summer.

Your punk pal,
Andy

[illegible]

O. Henry!

I don't have to wish ya the best in life cause you're already got it..... Me - (JUST KIDDING!)

I know you'll make the best out everything you attempt. And I wish you the best of life and everything that goes with it!
maybe if you're real lucky you'll grow up to be as cool and good ~~as~~
- looking as your brother - and if you drink all your milk - you'll be as tall & as strong as me!

Let's o'Luck to a good-looking, talented ~~guy~~ guy! Good luck with the Sex too!

Love ya
Charlotte
(the immortal immortal)

Henry,

If you just had red hair you'd be the best trumpeter around! The Washington trip! What a blast! You really should have lingered for your performance on the return trip. It seems I saw you a time or two. But of course you were being good and looking after the others. I'm counting on your influence to get Mr. Black to take me next year. Be good this summer and best of luck with your job at the Pool Room. With your smile and personality, no task is beyond reach!

Always,

Dallge

Henry,

I sure have enjoyed having you on the basketball team with us, and have also enjoyed the use of your phone. Now that you live near me I hope to see you alot this summer.

A friend,
Taylor

P.S. D.G.N.O.Y

Henry, (Lassiter)

Well Henry it won't be long before I'm leaving and the fun is just beginning for you. You'll probably be in a bond before long. I hope so, you've got the talent. Douglas, at guitar, I don't know, singing, ~~it~~ definitely know. We've had fun playing basketball at Jacks, especially playing pool, it takes you the ~~darrest~~ <sup>darnest</sup> time to shoot. You're improving everytime. Well, Douglas and you will have ~~it~~ <sup>it</sup> ~~all~~ <sup>all</sup> to yourself next year. Fun is just coming up! Beach trip and who knows what else. Keep doing <sup>good</sup> in school and you probably <sup>will</sup> go to Carolina. I hope so at least. Good luck Charles oh, I mean Henry, seems like I've always made that mistake.

P.S. Remember,
don't do anything
I would do, and especially don't do anything I tell you to do.

To another Henry,

It's really been great getting to know you better this year.
(Give me an L.S.) I didn't know what a swell person you were. Good luck to a most deserving guy.

Billy Henry

Henry,

this year has really been great!! Can you believe that next year we'll be big sophomores?! I can't. Then we'll be Juniors, and then our Senior year will come. (sob!)
You have a great talent being able to play a trumpet like you do! Use it wisely and you'll go far in life.

Everyone in Dunn are really glad you moved from Benson! We never would have known what a wonderful person you are. You're the greatest!

Remember the dance that the Debating League sponsored? How could we ever forget it?! I don't think you will!

Be good this summer and take care of yourself!! Take care of Hayland Earl too!
I know he won't give me half a chance to even look at him! O.K. well!

~~the~~ I'm looking forward to seeing you more in the coming years!

P.S: D.B.N.O.Y.

Henry,

I can truly say you've had a successful year at ole Durr High. It seems you made more friends than most people make in a life time, and this is because of your great personality. It's been a short year, but I don't ~~really~~ regret it. Next year you'll be a Sophomore (wise-fool) and I a Junior. You will have a lot of fun and there is also a lot of hard work. I don't think you have anything to worry about. We have a lot to look forward to this summer. If we don't get a job I don't guess we'll go anywhere. I'll be getting my driving license pretty soon and we'll be able to do a little ~~travelling~~ on our own. I guess Charles can go with us to, because I know how it is to be a little brother. You are one of my best friends. I hope our friendship will continue throughout our high school careers. Maybe next year we'll have some classes together. All the luck in the world to a great guy and friend. Don't get too much co this summer.

a friend always;

Even though our combs didn't do so but it was still a lot of fun. You said not to say anything bad so I can't say much. I haven't known but for this year but for all I know you're pretty good I guess. Be good this summer and all of that junk. Has Brooks would say Keep a cool tool Lot of Ruck!!!!
